

Nebraska Alliance of Child Advocacy Centers

The Nebraska Alliance of Child Advocacy Centers (Nebraska Alliance) provides statewide leadership in the fight against child abuse with its member centers, Nebraska's seven fully accredited Child Advocacy Centers.

MISSION

To enhance Nebraska's response to child abuse.

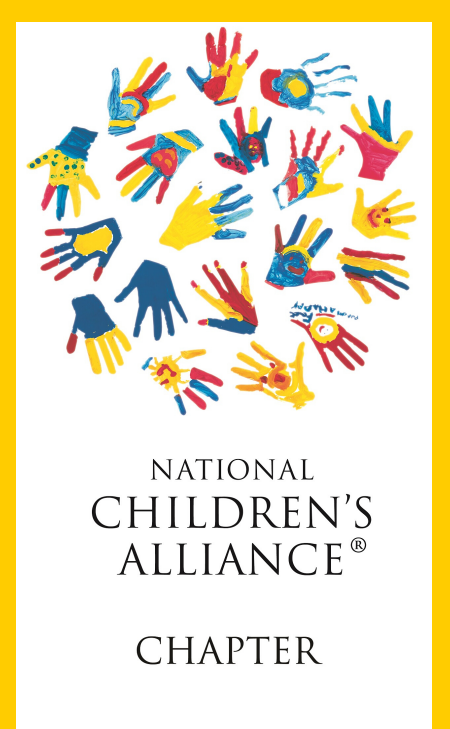

GOAL

To support the development, growth, and sustainability of child advocacy centers in Nebraska while promoting system improvements for abused and neglected children through advocacy and awareness.

The Nebraska Alliance was established in 2007, accredited as a State Chapter by the National Children's Alliance in 2012, and re-accredited in 2017.

The Nebraska Alliance:

- Facilitates a collaborative statewide network dedicated to a coordinated and comprehensive response to child abuse
- Serves as a leading resource within Nebraska in regard to child abuse issues and the Child Advocacy Center (CAC) model
- Represents a collaborative effort among our CAC membership, staff and our governing entity
- Provides support services to emerging and existing CACs and multi-disciplinary teams (MDTs), and
- Assists with the development, continuation, and enhancement of the CAC model throughout Nebraska
